The next number, 1707, gets assigned when a person is added, so this number will not change. This list of names in parenthesis following John William Leedy Sr. (1707), is the list of ancestors with a generation number following. So, John would be the 3th generation from Johannes (John) Leedy (Lidi).

For people that are still living, for security reasons, only the year and state of an event will be shown, even if we have the complete information entered for the event.

The pdf has been created with links that can be clicked to jump to that person. Currently the index at the end of the file has these as well as the first ancestor of individuals. So you can click on Jacob Leedy (Lidi)<sup>2</sup> to jump to him in the file.

Tennessee Records: Bible Records and Marriage Bonds. The above is a DAR publication, originally published in 1933, updated in 1974 and available for viewing at Ancestry.com: Search > Birth, Marriage & Death > Tennessee Records: Bible Records and Marriage Bonds. A very detailed section on the Binkleys starts on page 128 titled "Joseph Shackelford Binkley Bible". At the time this data was extracted the Bible had passed to his son, Henry Clay Binkley, of Nashville. The records appear to start with "Frederick Binkley, father of Joseph S. Binkley, born Feb 15, 1774, died Sept 18, 1857..." On page 129 there is a lineage starting with "Frederick Binkley, son of John and Johanna Leedy Binkley...". So, based on that statement & the lineage that follows it, this Bible belonged to a descendant of Frederick Binkley, my ancestor Daniel Binkley's brother. Also on page 129 is a lovely little section titled "Historical Facts of the Binkley Family". It starts with Peter [the Moravian] and John Binkley immigrating to America in or about 1717. On page 130 is this statement: "John Binkley and two other sons and their families came to Tennessee in 1779." John Binkley is referring to Johannes/John, Daniel Binkley's father, which puts my ancestor, Daniel, at 2-years old for this move. Interestingly, though, all the online family trees I see for

Generation 2

Johannes/John show almost all his children born in North Carolina, even those born after 1779. So something needs further investigation, obviously. On the same page (130) is a listing of marriages of Johannes/John's children. For Daniel the following is stated: "Daniel, who married Catherine Moser". Now I know this flies against the popular opinion that Daniel married Chatty/Catharina Woolf, but what can I say? There it is, in a DAR publication. It's also in the International Marriage Records database, but that entry may be based off of this DAR publication. So either he was married twice to women that had the same first name (certainly possible), or there is an error somewhere which needs to be found someday.

Traditions and recollections:

John W. Leedy is the most proven and firm connected child to the Jacob Leedy-I Branch to date. A photo of his tombstone, a hand-written note confirming the exact time of John's death was preserved by Jacob V. B. Leedy. Also, Jacob V. B. Leedy recalled in several letters written between the years of 1911 and 1913 what he knew of his father and grandfather's families. Another confirmation that John W. Leedy is the son of Jacob Leedy-I of York, PA is that Jacob V. B. Leedy said that he "believes that his grandfather was born in York, PA, where we know that Jacob Leedy-I lived after the death of his immigrant father, John Lidi.

Notes for Jacob Leedy:

Sources:

Red Series, Vol. I, p.29, Revolutionary War Records for York, PA, York County Historical Society, York, PA; listed a "Jacob Leedy, Jr." as not present, "The return of Capt. Comfort Compene for the year 1782."

York County Courthouse, York, York Co., PA, Grantor Deeds, Book 1, p. 193.

Jacob Leedy II had a son Jacob G. Leedy, and all Federal Census (1870 & 1880) accounts show that Jacob G. Leedy was born in VA. No family tradition has survives which supports that any of the PA Leedys moved permanently into VA, however, the census shows as early as 1790, Jacob Leedy II may have resided in Rockingham Co., VA near his uncle Samuel Leedy I.

It is likely Jacob Leedy II resided in VA until about 1806, with the exception of probably a few return visits to York or Harrisburg, PA during this time. He probably returned home around 1800 to marry Polly Stumbaugh, of York Co., PA.

Once again, no family tradition has survived that accounts for the reason that Jacob Leedy II lived in VA, but he apparently had already permanently returned by 1807 when records indicate that a Jacob Leedy is taxed for 100 acres in Halifax Twp., Dauphin Co., PA and on 09-25-1809 Jacob Leedy of Halifax Twp., Yeoman, was taxed 5 shillings for items sold to his brother Samuel. The items listed were a 15 year-old white and black spotted horse, a bed and bedding, table, chairs, chest, and all his household and kitchen furniture.

York County Historical Society Records, York, York Co., PA indicate that "Jacob Leedy, husband of Margaret Leedy," died 09-11-1829.

According to the Adams Family History, by Rolland L. Adams, 1971, "Catharine Leedy, wife of Jacob C. Snyder, was the granddaughter of Samuel Leedy, a Perry County stonemason and farmer. He came from York Co., PA at some time prior to 04-02-1810. On that date he bought from Henry Livingston and wife Getraut a tract of land in Buffalo Twp., Cumberland Co., containing 116 acres and 120 perches, adjoining lands of Thomas Huling, James Parsons, Jacob Livingston and William Rogers. For this land he paid 437 pounds, 16 shillings and 3 pence. At this time he was living in the township where the property then was located - today it is in Watts Twp., Perry Co."

"Samuel died 23 years later, in 1833, leaving a will that was written on April 27th of the same year. He made no mention of a wife in this document, which probably means that she had preceded him in death," Perry Co., PA Courthouse, Will Book A. p. 500.

Notes for Joseph Binkley:

[johnbi1.FTW]

[Bridget Rogier's 1997 printout says year of birth might be 1773 but shows it as 1788. I believe it to be 1773. If his parents went to Tennessee in 1799, it seems strange he would remain behind if he were in fact the youngest child. Also Joseph is not shown in the list of children baptized at the Bethania Moravian Church, which begins with Frederick, born 1774, the first child born after Johannes and Jacobina moved to North Carolina, and ends with Sarah, born 1786.

Information (source unknown) in Bridget Rogier's Peter Binkley, Born 1704, and His Descendants says that Joseph Binkley died in 1815 at the Battle of New Orleans. Although I have not been able to find a list of American deaths in the Battle, only a very few Americans died in the Battle; and it seems unlikely that Joseph was among them. The Mary Barry Freeman papers say that Joseph's nephew Jacob Childress died at the Battle of New Orleans, which also seems unlikely as the year of death given is 1812; but the Battle occurred in 1815. sbt]

Generation 3

Filed 30 Sept 1840. Names "the following lawful heirs & adopted heirs":

Geo. W. Binkley; Asa N. Binkley; Cynthia Lewis; Alanida Binkley; Joanna Felts; Catherine P. Carney; Martha Ann Gower. Written 2 Nov 1839. Executors were John Binkley and Asa N. Binkley.

It has not been determined if any of these named heirs are the natural children of Joseph Binkley or even if they are truly Binkley's. Obviously due to the language used in the will some or possibly all of them may not be his natural children. Some might be natural children and some adopted. Those adopted could be children of a Binkley relative and be Binkley's by birth even if not Joseph's children.

One of the heirs of Joseph listed in his will as Martha Ann Gower, is shown in the chart as marrying a Gower first and then Moses Cowgill in 1836. When Joseph wrote his will in 1839 Martha was still a Gower and could not have married Cowgill in 1836. The marriage for Martha Ann to Gower has not been located. Martha who married Moses Cowgill was a daughter of Daniel Binkley.

Another heir, Cynthia Binkley married Samuel Small in 1818 and later married Washington Lewis in 1827.

There is only one Isaac that I can find in the area and he is the son of Daniel. I believe placing Isaac as a son of George is based purely on tradition.

Stones River near his brother Frederick. Davidson County Deed Book Q, p. 179. This was July of 1824.

The sale of inventory of Daniel Binkley is recorded in Will Book 8, p. 460, stating the sale was held on Feb. 5th 1825.

Daniel's widow Catherine, and his sons Isaac and William are living near Frederick Binkley in the Stones River area in 1830. In 1840 Isaac and Benjamin F. (I believe this is Franklin Binkley named in the division above) are in the Stones River area.

Catherine widow of Daniel married Edward Elam, 5 may 1831. The marriage was performed by G. w.

From Goodspeed's History of Tennessee, originally published by Goodspeed Publishing Co., Nashville, 1886, republished by Southern Historical Press, Easley, South Carolina, 1979, p. 830-831:

In 1788 Samuel Crockett built a blockhouse or fort on the place where his son, Capt. M. D. Crockett, now lives. This served as a defense in times of danger for all that neighborhood. The Indians finally became so troublesome that the women and children were sent away to the stronger forts, while the men remained to look after the crops. With all the precautions taken by the community, a young lady, a daughter of Thomas Norris, was killed by the Indians, and Patrick Martin was wounded. Besides those mentioned the following persons settled in this vicinity and to the southwest of it: Benjamin Nail, Joseph Martin, Thomas Martin, Henry Frey, George Williams, George Murphy, Thomas Jamison, Julius Justice, James and Hardy Bryant and Thomas Holmes...

At the beginning of the present century [nineteenth], a colony of Germans from North Carolina, among whom were the Fishers, Binkleys, Stoltzes, Fykes, Gigers, Kigers, Clinards and some of the Freys, came to the county [Robertson] and settled on Carr's Creek and vicinity. After the removal of the Indians from this part of the State, the settlement went on very rapidly, and in 1812 there were 852 able-bodied men in the county divided into fifteen militia companies.

History of Richland County, Ohio Compiled by A.A. Graham; A.A. Graham & Co., Publishers. Mansfield, Ohio 1807 - 1880; page 807;

LEEDY, JOHN (deceased). The progenitor of the Leedy family now in the United States came from Switzerland, and settled in Maryland; his name was Abraham Leedy, and there were five children in his family ; one son, named Abraham, after his parent, is the father of the Leedys residing in Ohio. John, the subject of our sketch, was born in Maryland Sept. 10, 1779, and, when a few years old, his father moved to Bedford Co., Penn., and settled in Morrison's Cove; he was brought up a farmer, but early learned the art of distilling. On March 4, 1806, he was married to Eliz- abeth Keith, who was born near CoflFee Run, Penn., and she was then 17 years old; her father's name was Lewis Keith, and her mother's Mary Saltsman. In 1810, Mr. Leedy visited Richland Co., and, in 1811, moved, landing upon Sec. 35 June 6 ; his wagon was used as a residence until a log cabin was erected ; in 1812, he set up a still and commenced the manufacture of spirits, which was the first one put in operation in the county. The excitement caused by the Zimmer tragedy prompted him to leave his habitation in 1812, and he removed to the block-house at Fredericktown, where he remained about nine days. The forest was rapidly cleared away around his dwelling, and the ground devoted to agriculture ; the still, which he operated in connection, proved a valuable auxiliary, as the grain could be converted into liquor, which met with a ready sale to the Indians ; he remained upon the farm until 1836, when he left it and opened a hotel in Bellville, occupying the building in which the Exchange Bank is quartered ; here he remained about six years, and then returned to his farm, and died Sept. 6, 1851. He owned 640 acres of land; was one of the first Trustees of Jefferson when it embraced three townships; bold and resolute, knowing no fear, and, in his years of age, weighed 360 pounds. His children are Lewis, Catharine, Susan, Mary, Abraham, Samuel, Margaret, Rosan, John, Sarah and David ; they all grew up and were married, except David, who died young ; the daughters all moved West after marriage, with the exception of Catharine, who married Samuel Garber, and died in Jefferson Township. Mother Leedy died in Indiana at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Spayd, and was interred with the remains of her husband near Ankenytown, Ohio.

1820 U. S. Federal Census for Woodbury Twp., Bedford Co., PA listed "Abraham Leidy, Jr." was enumerated on pg. 76b, line 25 with 4 males aged 1-4, 1 male aged 26-44; 1 female aged 16-26 yrs (Note: no explanation why Catherine Leedy, daughter was not enumerated).

1850 U. S. Federal Census for Berlin Twp., Knox Co., OH; land valued at $15,900.

"Pioneer" Abraham Leedy (Jr.) travelled bringing his young family along for 3 weeks in the Fall of 1829, moving from Bedford Co., PA, to Ankenytown, Knox Co., OH ... passing through Pittsburgh along the way, Rev. Isaac A. Leedy, his son, recalled that at Pittsburgh the young family took in a monkey show.

The biography of Abraham Leedy given at the 1st Leedy Reunion on 08-18-1897 says that "Abraham Leedy was born in Bedford Co., PA, 04-15-1787, where he remained until 1829. He was reared on a farm and was known as a first-class farmer and teamster, devoting much of his time as a teamster."

"In the Fall of 1829, the wife and nine of the children migrated to Knox Co., OH, and purchased a large tract of land at Ankenytown, OH. They cleared the land which they occupied very successfully, saving enough from the proceeds to buy several additional farms. They were liberal and charitable feeding and clothing the needy, being firm in the belief that he that giveth to the poor 'Lendeth to the Lord.'"

"He and his wife were members of the Brethren Church and had the pleasure of seeing all their children start out to battle with life responsibilities for themselves, and all but two were united with the Brethren Church. Three sons were chosen to the ministry."

When father Leedy was nearing the close of his pilgrimage with bright prospects in view of that 'Rest that remaineth for the people of God,' he desired to be relieved of his earthly possessions and requested to have all of his children called to his home and fireside. This home was where they were reared and spent their happiest days and here they were to receive their father's possessions. The meeting was a grand success and the estate amounting to 36,000 acres was divided among the children without them paying one cent for attorney fees or for the land. This transaction occurred in the Fall of 1859, and on the eighth day of March, 1860, he quietly passed away with a smile on his lips from a hope below to a home above."

LEEDY, Daniel, deceased, was born in York County, PA. in 1819. He removed to Chambersburg, PA, where he learned the trade of wagon maker. He came to Harrisburg in 1840, and was for a time employed by John Dimmick, who was engaged in manufacturing the "Woodcock Plough." He subsequently purchased the business and continued it until 1851 or 1852, at which date he relinquished the enterprise and established a shoe business on Market street, near the present entrance to the Pennsylvania railroad station, in which he was engaged until the fall of 1861, when he removed to a farm in Franklin County.

In 1863 he returned to Harrisburg and for a year and a half was engaged in the shoe business at the corner of Fourth and Market Streets, after which he removed his store to the new building he had erected on the corner of 5th and Market and continued there until he retired from business in 1870. His death occurred in 1886.

Mr. Leedy was one of the stockholders in the 1st Harrisburg Passenger Railway Company. He was somewhat active in political matters in connection with the Republican party, having served as a member of the city council from the 9th Ward. His church membership was formerly with the Locust Street Methodist Episcopal church, but later he joined the Ridge Avenue Church, and was the chorister for some years.

Mr. Leedy was married to Miss Louisa Peyton, daughter of Chambers Peyton, of Chambersburg, who survives him. They reared three sons and three daughters: William, shoe dealer, deceased; Margaret, Mrs. J. H. DeHaven, of Harrisburg; John W.; Laura, Mrs. A. C. Irvin, Washington, D. C.; Mary L., Mrs. W. L. Calderword, Philadelphia; Daniel, Jr., deceased, a private in the United States Army, afterwards in the shoe business in Harrisburg.

John W. Leedy was born November 23, 1844, and received his education in the public schools. He was employed in his father's store until his retirement, in 1870, when he succeeded to the business, which he conducted for eighteen years. In 1888 he gave up the shoe business and embarked in the manufacturing of building and paving brick, in which enterprise he has been successfully engaged since that time, supplying the home demand and making large shipments to other towns.

Generation 4

Mr. Leedy is not active in politics, but his sentiments are in agreement with the Republican party. He was married in 1866 to Miss Clara May, of Juniata County, who died in 1890. Their children are: Alda, Fannie, Louisa, Frank, and Mary. The family are members of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, in which Mr. Leedy holds the office of president of the board of trustees.

Jacob Leedy reportedly died at 3:30 a.m. on 03-17-1904.

In 1851, he was one of the 1st Tobacco Manufactures to recognize and deal with a union of workers. A staunch American patriot, he with 3 eldest sons and enlisted in Purnell Legion of Union forces and drum major for 3 years at beginning of Civil War.

After hostilities ended, organized a Leedy Drum Corps in the Union Veteran Legion, consisting of 18 players. For 2 generations in Youngstown the Corps was feature of parades and celebrations. Jacob was drum major and fifer and 5 sons drummers. He played fife in parades for both Pres W.H. Harrison and his grandson Pres. Benjamin Harrison, and in funeral procession of Pres James A Garfield.

Following the after Battle of Gettysburg, the Leedy couple were among the 1st persons to enter the stricken city, Mrs. Leedy being concerned for welfare of her parents and brothers, and sisters. Through the help of a friend who was a railroad official, they were brought through the lines aboard a railroad box car carrying food and provisions from Baltimore, MD.

Neighbors Disliked Union Sympathies ...

Upon returning, they found neighbors angered over their Union sympathies and about 1868 moved to Bryan, Williams Co., OH. Had cigar making shop there, 1870. A decade later the couple followed their son, Charles, in moving to Youngstown, OH where Jacob Leedy & Sons, tobacconists, flourished until Jacob's ret, as the nation's oldest manufacture, tobacconist.

Catherine was educated at a female seminary in Carlisle, PA. She possessed musical talent like her sister, a concert pianist, and had a voice of quality. She sang for years as a soloist in the Old England Lutherine Church of Baltimore. Their 60th anniversary at Pioneer Pavilion in Mill Creek Park, Youngstown, was attended by 80 relatives and friends.

(228) "Uncle Issac" Leedy of OH was impressed when he read her obit. in the Leedy Chronicle in 1906. " I never knew, no never even heard, of that noble, even heard, of that noble, useful, pious, consecrated and saintly mother, Mrs. Catherine Leedy of Youngstown until I saw her picture... This picture and biography is worth more to me than the price of the Chronicle of a lifetime." Hew regretted that she had

Jacob Leedy

Birth: Jun. 6, 1819, York Borough, York Co., PA

Death: Mar. 17, 1904, Youngstown, Mahoning Co., OH

Jacob Leedy was born 06-06-1819 in York Borough, York Co., PA, the first child born to Daniel Leedy, Sr. & Anna "Marie" (Stahl) Leedy.

Jacob Leedy was married 05-13-1841 by Rev. Benjamin Kellar at Gettysburg, Adams Co., PA to Catherine Pauley Gillespie. She was the daughter of John Gillespie. Jacob and Catherine Leedy later became the parents of 12 children.

By 1849, Jacob, his wife Catherine and 4 of their children moved from Gettysburg, PA to Baltimore, MD by stage coach.

It was in Baltimore, MD where Jacob Leedy started a business in 1849 as a merchant of tobacco and snuff along with his brother Samuel Leedy. By 1851, he was one of the 1st tobacco makers in the U. S. to recognize a union of workers. He specialized in the manufacture of cigars and is considered to be one of the nation's earliest tobacconist.

A staunch Union patriot, Jacob Leedy as a 42 year-old father, along with three of his eldest sons, joined the Union cause as a drum major at the outbreak of the Civil War. He enlisted 09-15-1861 at Baltimore, MD with F Regt., Purnell Legion, MD Volunteer Infantry and stayed with this unit until he was honorably discharged on 10-20-1862.

Following the battle of Gettysburg, Jacob Leedy and wife were among the 1st to enter the city, Mrs. Leedy being concerned for the well-being of her parents and brothers, and sisters. With the help of a friend who was a railroad official, they were brought through the lines aboard a railroad box car carrying food and provisions from Baltimore, MD.

Upon returning to Baltimore, MD, they found their neighbors were troubled over their Union sympathies and so the family decided to move to Bryan, OH. Jacob established a cigar making shop here in 1870. A decade later the couple followed their son, Charles, to Youngstown, OH where he started his business "Jacob Leedy & Sons, Tobacconists", remaining active as a tobacco maker and merchant until his retirement.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS OF WRIGHT COUNTY, MISSOURI

Compiled/Copyrighted by Robert D. Caudle; listed William Binkley Age 58 and born in Tenn. according to the 1860 census for Wright Co. Mo. He is listed as having paid taxes in Wright Co. in 1861. William was a Confederate soldier during the war and was killed by Federals just West of the courthouse

Peter Binkley, Born 1704, and His Descendants, compiled by Bridget McCartney Rogier, shows this William as the son of [Johann] George Binkley and Nellie Earthman. However, one of the few documents that exist on George is his 1805 marriage to Nellie in Davidson County, Tennessee. William was born before this date. As he went to Wright County, Missouri, as did Isaac Binkley, I believe that this William is the same William who was the son of Daniel sbt Mystery ...

Why did Salinda Leedy have 2 children recorded in the census with the last name as Leedy instead of Patterson? Tombstone inscriptions and subsequent records further conclude this. This has been a mystery ... or at least a mystery until one looks at the overall picture. Records clearly indicate that she was either married to or a consort of William T. Patterson, and they had 2 children together.

Without having found any record on file of a divorce, we know that William Patterson remarries in 1846 to a Nancy (?) even though Salinda Leedy was still living. We know that William Patterson and his 2nd wife Nancy marry in Tazewell Co., VA 06-02-1846; move to Vermillion Co., IL and have 6 children born to them (between the years 1847-1861).

The 2 children (Mary Jane Leedy and Thomas Rush F. Leedy) born to William Patterson and Salinda Leedy previously to Nancy Patterson's children ... between the years 1840 and 1845 ... appear in all the federal census records from 1850 forward retaining the last name Leedy ... not Patterson?

Did William Patterson decide to move to Vermillion Co., IL and Salinda Leedy decide to remain in Tazewell Co., VA.? Did William Patterson decide to go without Salinda, find a new wife (Nancy) and they moved to IL? On this premise the mystery why the 2 children of Salinda were henceforth recorded as Leedy, and Salinda's last name was recorded as Leedy in the 1850 Federal Census might be solved.

Will of Christian Kegley

I Christian Kegley of Wythe County do make this my last will and testament in the following manner to wit after the payment of all my just debts out of my estate by my Executor herein named. I do give and bequeath to my son John Kegley a certain tract of land containing about 30 acres for which he holds a title bond on— me.

Generation 4

2nd: As some of my children have already received money and other property, it is my wish that it should be deducted out of their shares. My son George has received one hundred dollars. My sons John and Jared also have received one hundred dollars each. My son Jonathan has received one hundred and fifty dollars. My son Isaac has received eighty-five dollars and my son Samuel has received five dollars. And whereas my daughters Elizabeth Magdalena and Sally have received nothing, it is therefore my will that they shall have one hundred dollars each out of the first money that will become due to my estate.

3rd: And whereas I have on the 30th day of October 1823 sold to John Copenhafer the plantation I now live on and the said Copenhafer who is intermarried with my daughter Rebecca, has since sold the said plantation to my son Abraham Kegely and the said John Copenhafer and Abraham Kegley having their full shares in the said plantation they are to have no claim to the residue of my estate at my decease.

4th: I give and bequeath to my sons George, John and Jared one hundred dollars each, which they have already received. I also give to my son Jonathan one hundred dollars and no more, and the fifty dollars which I have overpaid him he is to pay to his sister Elizabeth ?schlus?, and that is to be a part of the hundred dollars before devised to her.

5th: I give and bequeath to my son Isaac Kegley eighty-five dollars which he has already received in a horse and no more.

6th: I give to my son Samuel Kegley five dollars.

7th: I also give and bequeath all the residue of my estate both real and personal that is not already disposed of as follows, to wit, to my sons George, John and Jared and to my daughters Elizabeth Magdalena and Sally to be equally divided among the last named children.

8th: And whereas I have sold several tracts of land that I have not made title for I do hereby authorize my executor herein after named to make the titles to those that I have sold lands to. To Nicholas Darter for a small tract lying on Stoney fork also make a title to Andrew Lindemood for a tract lying on the south side of the plantation whereon I now live for which the said Lindemood holds a title bond on me and also make titles to John Copenhafer for or Abraham Kegley as soon as they will give bond and security for the payment according to the agreement made on the 30th of October 1825, between the said Copenhafer and myself and it is my will that the said executor shall also make a deed to Jared Kegley as soon as the said Jared Kegley will give bond and security for the payment of the plantation the said Jared now lives on. According to the agreement made between the said Jared Kegley and myself, and in case the said Jared should fail to give the security or make the payment according to the aforesaid agreement the said land is to be sold by my executor on a credit or for cash as he will think best and the money arising from that sale to be equally divided among my children last named.

Ninthly and lastly: I constitute and appoint my son John Kegley Executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills and testaments heretofore by me made. In witness whereof, I have here

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD

J. A. Leedy Passes Away at His Home Here Wednesday at 12:05 O'clock – Community Mourns.

Death has again invaded our city and claims as its victim, J. A. Leedy, one of our most prominent citizens and leading business men. He had been in poor health for several months and this last spring he gave up his active life in the store and since had been trying to regain his health. He went to West Baden, Indiana, in the summer hoping that the baths there would benefit him and, in fact, did feel some better after his return home. About a month ago he took a turn for the worse and since that time had been confined to his home, death relieving him of his sufferings as stated above. The cause of his demise being Brights disease and enlargement of the heart. He was a patriotic citizen and was always ready and willing to lend a hand in anything that was for the betterment of his home town. He has been in business here for over twenty years and was a successful merchant. A little over two years ago he erected a handsome business building and was now just ready to do business on a large scale and in a convenient manner. He will be greatly missed from our community and the entire citizenship extends sympathy to the bereaved wife and relatives.

OBITUARY.

James Albert Leedy, youngest son of James and Catherine Leedy, was born on the banks of the Wabash river near Terre Haute in Vigo county, Indiana, March 30, 1850. After the death of his father his mother removed with her family to Somers township, Champaign county, Illinois. The mother afterward married B. F. Argo and the family resided on his farm, now known as the Bowers farm, for many years. When Albert was about twenty years of age he came to St. Joseph and lived the rest of his life in this village.

December 17, 1882, he was married to Melvina Peters, who survives. Mr. Leedy was the youngest of a family of nine children all of whom have preceded him to the spirit land. For more than forty years he was a resident of St. Joseph and for more than twenty years a successful merchant. He believed in his town and was interested in everything that contributed to the welfare of the community. He was an officer of the St. Joseph Building Loan and Investment Association from its organization and also for years a member of the village council. He united with the church in 1886 under the ministry of Rev. Harmon Gregg. He was faithful and loyal to the cause of Christ and his church, ever ready to give time, money, and effort that his church might flourish and the kingdom of Christ be advanced. He leaves a name that is honored among men for his public spirit, his business integrity and his high sense of public and private morality. For the past two years he has been in failing health and during the past month grew worse rapidly until on Wednesday, September 27, 1911, at 12 o'clock, noon, he passed to the other shore, aged 61 years, 5 months and 27 days.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral services will be held today at the Church of Christ at 10:00 o'clock a.m., conducted by Elder

From Richland County, OH History;

JOHN L. GARBER.

There is particular interest in reverting to the life history of the honored and venerable gentleman whose name initiates this review, for his mind bears the impress of the historical annals of the state of Ohio from the early pioneer days to the present time. For a long period he was identified with the agricultural interests of this section of the state but now at the age of eighty-two years he is living retired, having in former years accumulated a competency that now supplies him with all the comforts of life.

John L. Garber was born near his present home, December 11, 1826, a son of Samuel and Catherine (Leedy) Garber, the former born in York county, Pennsylvania, May 8, 1804. His father entered the war of 1812 as a civilian employee and was never heard from afterward. The mother then removed to Bedford county, Pennsylvania, where the son Samuel was placed in charge of a relative, who mistreated him and he returned to his mother, who in the meantime had married Samuel Brawler. Samuel Garber remained in his native state until 1821, when he made his way to Richland county and for a time worked at the shoemaker's trade, after which he was employed by John Leedy, a farmer. It was there that he formed the acquaintance of the daughter, Catherine Leedy, whom he afterward made his wife. He then began farming on his own account and spent his remaining days in Richland county. His family numbered twelve children, of whom our subject is the eldest.

John L. Garber was reared on his father's farm, assisting in clearing the wild land and developing the fields into a cultivable tract. During those early days the family had to endure many hardships, the methods of farming being quite unlike those of the present day, and the family had to go to Sandusky to do their trading. Mr. Garber remained under the parental roof until he attained his majority, at which time he went to Cedar county, Iowa, to join an uncle, who was a millwright by trade. He worked as a millwright in that state for three years, when he once more returned to Richland county and engaged in repairing mills along the Clear fork. He also assisted in building a steam mill in Wyandot county, Ohio. About that time his father erected a brick house, the first in this section of the state, and Mr. Garber roofed the dwelling. This induced some of the neighbors to solicit his services in the erection of houses and in all he helped to build sixteen dwellings. He then engaged in farming, having purchased sixty acres in "Worthington township, which he farmed for one year. Disposing of that property, he then bought one hundred and sixty acres in partnership with a brother but this was later divided, our subject taking eighty acres on section 33, Jefferson township. To this he later added from time to time as his financial resources increased until he possessed three hundred and twenty acres. For a long period he continued to carry on agricultural pursuits on an extensive scale and accumulated quite a comfortable fortune. About a year ago he divided his land among his children and since that time has lived in well earned ease.

On (he 27th of August, 1854, Mr. Garber was united in marriage to Miss Mary Swank, who was born

Humboldt Independent, Humboldt, IA, December 19, 1907

Passed Away

Rosanna Leedy was born in Richland County, Ohio, March 29th, 1826.

She was united in marriage to Wade H. Brown on October 6th, 1851. They removed from Ohio to Pierceton, Indiana in 1852, where they resided until 1870, when they removed to Humboldt County, Iowa. She is survived by five children, Sarah L. Hawkins and Elizabeth M. Emory of Dakota City, Iowa, William O. Brown of Rolfe, Ariel C. Brown of Estherville, John L. Brown of Eagle Grove, Iowa, fourteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

She was a charter member of the Presbyterian Church at Pierceton, Indiana and was a member of the Congregation Church of Humboldt, at the time of her death. Her husband preceded her in death January 26th, 1906.

Mrs. Brown passed through the experiences incident to pioneer life, first in Indiana and subsequently in Iowa. She had passed four score years, her age being 82 this coming March. She was a schoolmate in her girlhood, of General Sherman and his brother the great senator. She was the only survivor of a large circle of brothers and sisters. She was a woman of strong character and regarded no sacrifice too great for her household. She was a woman of exceptional winsomeness, was widely known and as widely respected and loved.

The funeral was held at the Congregational Church in Humboldt, of which congregation and church she had for many years been a member, Rev. H. D. Herr officiated at the desk and gave a fine eulogy to the departed one and in beautiful language carried the lesson of the occasion to many responsive hearts. A large number of old neighbors and friends were present at the services and followed the remains to Union Cemetery where they were laid to rest.

AARON A. LEEDY

Born April 21, 1832, in Knox County, OH to Abraham Leedy and Elizabeth Zook. Abraham moved his family from Morrison's Cove, PA in September 1829 and settled near Ankenytown, OH, near where his older brother, "Big John" Leedy, had settled in 1811.

As a young man, Aaron worked as a carpenter and helped build the Brethren Church in Ankenytown. He became a skilled mechanic who operated sawmills, threshing machines, and other farm equipment. He married Elizabeth Ann Garber, his first cousin, once removed, on March 13, 1856. They first lived on her father's farm, then occupied several farms in the area until purchasing part of the original "Big John" Leedy land from Samuel Garber in 1863.

He built a large brick home about 1870 directly over a spring, which served as a cool pantry. He provided running water from a large holding tank in the attic and installed a copper bathtub in the master bedroom.

Aaron was a general farmer growing corn, oats, and wheat. He raised cattle, hogs, sheep, chicken, and turkeys; and sold meat, butter, eggs, hides, wool, and maple syrup. In his daily journal he detailed temperature, wind direction and speed, precipitation and agricultural production (e.g., pounds of butter, eggs, gallons of maple syrup). He was a charter member of the Jefferson Grange, serving as first Master. He was president of the Patrons Mutual Relief Association for many years. He was a Universalist and helped erect that church's Bellville, OH building. A Prohibitionist, he proudly voted a "clean prohibition ticket" in 1887.

Music was important in his life. He led a Grange band consisting of neighbors and family members. He taught singing and loved singing at home with friends, at Grange meetings, and church events. Aaron recorded in his journal in 1887, 22 band practices, 12 band appearances, and "went to singing" on 26 occasions. He had charge of music at the first Leedy Reunion on September 23, 1896, and served as Reunion President 1898-1900. Aaron and Elizabeth celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on March 13, 1906, at their home.

Aaron died on October 28, 1907, and is buried at Owl Creek Cemetery, Knox County, OH. "He will be remembered best for his unfailing humor, the 'glad hand' and hearty greeting" (The Leedy Chronicle October 1907). Children are listed under Elizabeth Ann Garber.

She is said to have been of "medium height, stoutly built, had auburn hair, blue eyes and ruddy complexion." Her son Samuel Leedy McDaniel said that his mother "was a woman of remarkable patience although often disturbed in her household duties, annoyed and vexed yet I cannot remember of her ever being downright angry." She was "always quite, patient and cheerful, we all thought when she was gone that we had lost our best friend, and the best of mothers."

Rev. Roy Benton Leedy files, Lyme Historic Village.

Samuel Leedy McDaniel also mentions that "she could read and write the English language although in her earliest years the German language was used in the family (Pennsylvania Dutch)."

Obituary:

Leedy, Willie L. -- Mt. Carmel -- Death has again visited this community and removed a loved one from the home of L.B. Leedy on Saturday evening, Sept. 29th. Willie L. Leedy, aged 8 years departed this life very suddenly, he had complained some through the day but they didn't think that he was dangerous as he was up and around and could talk up to about 25 minutes of his death, but about 9 o'clock it was apparent that his end was night, they took him to his bed and he passed quietly away, as his disease was one of rare occurrence and there was an anxiety, both by the medical fraternity as well as by all those who called to see him during his severe illness some over two years ago. The family thought it best to have a post mortem examination and the following is the finding of the board of examiners. // Post-mortem Report ---- Sept. 29, 1889. Post mortem of Willie L. Leedy; upon opening the brain we found a marked case of hydrocephalus, there was about twelve ounces of thin fluid, we also found a small quantity of pus in right side. D.H. Darling and G.A. Welker. // The funeral took place on Monday at the Four Corners church, conducted by the Rev. J.O. Stull. The bereft family have the sympathy of all in this their sad loss. -- [BELLVILLE INDEPENDENT: 03 October 1889, Vol. 2, No. 25]

From the Robertson County [Tennessee] Times, 26 January 1928, p. 1:

JOHN H. BINKLEY CLAIMED BY DEATH

Father of Sheriff Binkley, Was 92-Years Old

The death of John Henry Binkley, a prominent citizen of the Mt. Zion neighborhood in the 13th civil district, which occurred Tuesday caused sincere regret not only by his family and in his immediate neighborhood but throughout the entire county.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion church Wednesday afternoon, by the Rev. John L. Chenault.

Mr. Binkley was born February the 6th, 1836, and died January the 24th 1928, he, therefore, had passed his ninety-first milestone and only lacked 13 days of reaching his ninety-second milestone at the time of his death.

He was a farmer and spent his entire life on a farm within one mile of where he was born.

He would have been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church seventy years on Sept. 15, 1928, and had lived a devout and consistent member for almost three-score and ten years.

He was a man of quiet retiring disposition; was always deeply interested in the affairs of his state and county and nation. He had strong convictions, but a heart of kindness to his fellowmen, with praise to all and censure for none.

2509. James H. Felts was born on Feb 01, 1866 in Williamson Co., IL. He married Minnie E. Chamness (8626) in 1899 in IL. She was born in Sep 1871 in IL.

Notes for James H. Felts:

JAMES H. FELTS, Printer.

Was born February 1st, 1866, in Williamson County. 111. He is a son of M. V. Felts, the veteran horticulturist and apple man of Southern Illinois. Reared on the homestead farm about five miles north of Marion, he took the usual routine of our country schools, ending with a term at the Crab Orchard Academy and one at Ewing College.

In 189S he bought a half interest in the Johnson City Progress, and entered the newspaper ranks, with R. N. Jones as his partner. Three years later he sold out and joined forces with S. K. Casey, in the Egyptian Press at Marion, where he still remains.

He was married December 28th, 1899, to Miss Minnie E. Chamness, daughter of M. E. Chamness, of Marion.

He is an elder of the First Missionary Baptist church of Marion, and the Clerk. He is also a member of the Williamson County Baptist Missionary Association. He takes little interest in politics, but votes the Democratic ticket, and is now running for Clerk of the Circuit Court. His principal interest in life centers in the christian religion and church, of which he is an earnest, active and useful member.

2510. Malcolm Argyle Felts was born on Jan 22, 1870 in Williamson Co., IL.

Notes for Malcolm Argyle Felts:

MALCOM ARGYLE FELTS.

W.as born in Williamson County, January 22, 1870. He is a son of Martin V. Felts and brother of James H. Felts. His youth was spent on the old homestead, where he was reared by a man of steady habits in the most favorable surroundings, conducive to a life of sobriety and 'irtue. Twenty years of his life were spent in this close communion with nature and nature's God, and he could not if he would, avoid acquiring ( possibly we ought to say preserving) those mental and moral characteristics which go to form the greatest and purest of men.

With such a school the mere matter of acquiring a knowledge of letters is of minor importance. Yet he secured the rudiments of a common school education and in 1896 and '9 7 attended the college at Creal Springs. He began teaching in 1S90. and taught four terms in Williamson County and three in Johnson County. He had bought a half interest in the Johnson City Progress of his brother James prior to his experience as a teacher, but afterwards sold and came to Marion and took a position as reporter on the Evening Post. He lately resigned, however, and is now engaged in handling agricultural implements with his brother James. He is a member of the Missionary Baptist church, though formerly connected with the Christian or Disciple organization.

On May 22, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Lulu M. Chamness, the daughter of W. M. Chamness of Saline County.

MARTIN V. FELTS.

Farmer.

The subject of this sketch is the son of Hardy Felts and Joanna Binkley. Both were natives of North Carolina and came to Tennessee when children. Martin Felts was born February 6, 1837, in Tennessee. His mother died when he was a lad of seven years. At the age of sixteen, he came with his father to Marion, where his father died. Mr. Felts was reared on a farm and has followed that occupation all his life. After the death of his father he lived for two years with Washington Binkley until the latter's death, when he took charge of the farm and managed it on shares for four years, until June 1, 1863, when he married Miss Rebecca Lucky, the daughter of J. M. Lucky, of Tennessee. Mrs. Felts is still living and almost as active as when first married, and scarcely a gray hair in her head. They have two sons, whose portraits appear in this volume. Their only daughter, Mrs. Contrace Grant, died in 1901. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Felts moved on the Benton road, five miles north of Marion, on the O'Daniel farm, and bought from Lewis Parks one hundred and ten acres of land which they have continued to cultivate until the present time, a period of forty years. The picture of the old homestead which adorns these pages, justifies his choice of a locality and shows what nature will do for man when directed by intelligence and industry. The old home has been now for some time in the hands of renters, and to some extent shows the usual marks of the owner's absence. He has quit farming now and has bought and built a fine cottage in Marion, where he expects to spend his remaining days. Mr. Felts has always given a great deal of attention to fruit raising, and is widely known as the best apple man in Southern Illinois. He is called the apple king of Williamson County. He planted and owns twenty acres

Notes for Henry Binkley:

[johnbi1.FTW]

[I am puzzled by the presence of a second son named Henry. If Frank, Isaac, and the older Henry are known to have been born in April 1864, then there is a strong possibility that the birthdate of this set of triplets comes from a later census. In order to appear in a later census, the older Henry would have needed to survive past infancy. Then the question arises as to why this family would have a second son named Henry, born two years after a son also named Henry who did not die in early childhood. Need to see the census records. sbt]

Notes for Emily E. Coday:

She reportedly had no children but raised Oma Pierson.

Emily made her profession of faith at the age of 15 and remained a true and devoted Christian until her death. She and Dudley are buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

Dudley was a deacon in the Pleasant Hill Freewill Baptist Church from 1902 until his death. Not only did he farm very successfully, but he was also a salesman for Bate's Liniment and drove around the countryside in a buggy selling this product which was good for internal and external application for whatever ailment one might have. Later he drove a "Tin Lizzie" (Ford car).

The following "receipt" for this liniment has been copied from a letter dated Feb. 28, 1908: "one gallon turpentine [sic], two ounces each of oil Sassafras and oil Organum, one ounce each of oil Amber and oil Cedar, 4 ounces oil Gum Camphur. Put all together and let stand over night. Then, ready for use. Makes one gallon liniment."

After Emily's death Dudley married Mary Belle Shaddy whose husband had died. Dudley and Emily had intended for Oma to be their adopted daughter and heir. They had the adoption papers drawn up but never signed them. After Oma's husband told Dudley that Oma could not inherit from him without the papers being signed and witnessed, Dudley and Mary Belle signed the adoption papers.

The Claxton house with a few changes and repairs was still standing and livable until it burned in the early

Pioneer Resident Dead

Generation 5

In the passing away Monday of John Strong Wright county lost one of her pioneers—a citizen who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, and his circle of acquaintances was a large one.

John Strong was born September 17, 1831 in Roane county, Tenn. and died May 30, 1915, at the home of his son, Isaac Strong near Mansfield, aged 83 years, 8 months and 17 days.

When a very small boy he came to Missouri. When he was 9 years old his parents died, and ten years later he came to Wright county, where an older brother had previously located.

December 31, 1850, he married Miss Winnie Rogers, to which union were born 16 children, 8 of whom survive: Isaac Strong, of Mansfield; Rev. James Strong, of Helena, Okla; Albert Strong, Mrs. Louisa Smith and Mrs. Frances Thomas, of Hutchinson, Kansas; Mrs. Martha Buffalo of Nickerson, Kansas; Mrs. Dora Young of Shantee, Okla.; and Mrs. Sallie Young, of Paragould, Ark.

For forty years Mr. Strong resided on a farm north of Hartville. Upon the death of his wife in 1898 he sold his farm, and has since that time resided with his children.

In 1858 he was converted and became a member of the M. E. church, of which he remained until called to the church triumphant.

Rev. L. W. Hensley conducted the funeral services from the Free Will Baptist church at Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Only three of his children Isaac and Rev. James Strong and Mrs. Dora Young were present at the funeral, the others being unable to attend on account of the high water prevailing between their homes and Mansfield.

Mr. Strong was one of those early pioneers who did so much in the earlier days to bring our country to its present high state of advancement. He was a hard worker and a great hunter, but never neglected the farm work to hunt. In the three years following the close of the civil war he killed over 300 deer, besides wild turkeys and other game galore. Although not a large man, physically, it is related that on one occasion when hunting he killed two deer and started homeward carrying them a considerable distance. Being closely pursued by wolves he placed one of the deer in a tree beyond the reach of the wolves, and carried the other home. He returned the next day and got the one left behind. Mansfield Mirror.

Imprisoned at Camp Chase [Columbus, OH], then Ft Delaware, OH, 1864, where signed POW roll with his mark.

Probably Had Confederate Sympathies

No doubt he was the Harv Leedy, then a blacksmith, who is featured in a slim, well-illustrated history of the Battle of Kingsport, TN, 13 Dec, 1864, written by Tom Ramsey. More than 4,000 Yankees were bearing down on 300 Rebels, who were digging in on a cedar bluff at the forks of the Holston R. Aware the night before that a battle was imminent, Harv locked up his shop on the Holston N of the bluff, saddled his horse and dashed for the village to spread the news. Seems he still had Confederate sympathies. Mary (Hoffman) Nelms, who had heard of the action 1st hand, told the tale. Leedy was remembered fording the river on his way home. When he reached Kingsport, "water clinging to his horse's flanks had already turned to chunks of ice." Mary's mother next day had stood on the portico of their house and watched the shooting, but the Rebels, having had more swigs of Kingsport moonshine than needed for courage, fled in disorder, suffering 18 dead and losing 84 prisoners.

Aged 22 in 1850 census, Smyth Co., VA. Aged 30 in 1860 census, Russell Co., VA. Wagoner, according to 1880 census, Smyth Co., VA. On 14 Nov 1871 was deeded 1/4 acre on Broadway at Depot St. in New Marion, VA, by Wade D. Strother. On 3 May 1878 of Smyth Co., VA, by mark declared intention to claim homestead, thus mortgaging a mare, horse, wagon, harness, beds, etc.

He said it was a hard name to recall but he believed Jane's mother was "Salinda Leedy who would therefore be the grandmother of Rufus Leedy."

History Of Delaware County, Indiana

DAVID HENRY HARRISON SHEWMAKER was born November 16, 1840, in Harrison county, Indiana His father, Tandy Shewmaker, was a native of Kentucky, and his mother a native of Virginia. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812 and belonged to the famous cavalry of Col. Dick Johnson, taking part in the battle of the Thames, in which the noted chief Tecumseh was killed. In 1820 he came to Indiana and settled in the wilderness of Harrison county, where he cleared and improved a farm. There he was engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1872, when he died at the advanced age of ninety-four years. D. H. H. Shewmaker worked on the farm with his father until the outbreak of the rebellion, when he was enrolled a member of the Third Indiana cavalry -- a part of the army of the Potomac. He was mustered into service with his regiment June 22, 1861, and took part in the battles around Richmond, under Gen. McClellan; also the battles of South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. During the Gettysburg campaign he received a severe gunshot wound, from which he never recovered. He did not permit this injury to interfere with his service to the Union, however, and followed Grant in his victorious campaign against Petersburg and Richmond, taking part in all general engagements, beside numerous skirmishes. His regiment, which was a part of Gen. Phil Sheridan's famous cavalry, was commanded by Col. Geo. H. Chapman, of Indianapolis, who was afterward elevated to the rank of brigadier general. At the close of the war Mr. Shewmaker returned to his home, and, in 1865, married Miss Nancy Abigail McRea, daughter of Franklin and Rachel (Sands) McRea. They are the parents of three children, named, respectively, Della, Emma and Walter, all now living to bless the home circle.

At the age of sixteen years Mr. Shewmaker taught his first school, and , with the exception of the time spent in the army, has since devoted his time and talents to that profession. Beginning in the district schools of the county, he has steadily advance to the front as a teacher. He was principal of the graded schools at Elizabeth, Harrison county, Indiana, for four years and taught one term at Yorktown, in Delaware county, where he organized the graded schools. In 1874 he was appointed principal of the Jefferson school at Muncie, a position he filled with eminent ability for a period of eight years. For one year he held the position of principal of the Muncie high school, and afterward became principal of the Washington schools, which position, by successive reappointments, he has held for ten consecutive years. He has displayed great tact in school government, studying carefully the dispositions of his pupils and endeavoring to control them by kindness rather than by hard measures. It is a fact worthy of note that only two suspensions have occurred in the Washington building during the period of his incumbency as principal. He is enthusiastic in the cause of public education, and devotes a great deal of his time to the encouragement and assistance of teachers' institutes throughout the county. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and unites the virtues of a christian gentleman with his ability as a teacher.

Politically Prof. Shewmaker has ever been an earnest supporter of the republican party and cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln for the presidency. He was nominated and elected a member of the common council of Muncie in the spring of 1888, re-elected in 1890, and retired from the position in 1892, and to his untiring efforts is largely due the credit of the successful prosecution and completion of the first street railway in Muncie. In the spring of 1889, in partnership with his son-in-law, H. Marsh Jackson, Prof. Shewmaker embarked in the retail drug trade, which he carried on until the fall of 1889. In 1880 he had charge of the United States census enumeration in the city of Muncie and did the entire work in the gathering of the statistics, but in 1890, owing to the increased population, was assisted in the work by several enumerators. In Masonic circles Prof. Shewmaker has filled official positions in the local lodge. His name also appears as one of the organizers upon the charter of Williams post, No. 78, G. A. R.

HISTORY INDIANA DEMOCRACY NEWSPAPER

In 1843 the outfit was purchased by Phineas M. Kent and the name changed to Soiitli-xvestern Demoerat. Another sale or two finally brought the paper into the possession of Bradley & Lucas, who, after a year, sold out to Norman & Bosworth in 1849. The latter firm changed the name to the Neic Albany Ledger and it at once took prominent standing as a political paper. Norman was a strong writer, a man of great literary ability and tht peer of Prentice in some ways. Bosworth soon retired from the Ledger and Mr. Kent again became one of the owners and put it upon its financial feet. He was a man of means, owned a large mill, and was first president of the St. Louis Air Line, now part of the Southern system. Norman's political influence pervaded this particular section of Indiana and he was acknowledged as one of the ablest of Indiana editors. He died October 30, 1869. His interest was transferred to Lucius G. Matthews, who in 1872 sold to Merrill & Meter, when a stock company was formed and the paper was consolidated with the Standard, the company consisting of C. E. Merrill, C. R. Moter, Josiah Gwin, J. V. Kelso, Charles E. Johnson. Shortly after the consolidation all but Mr. Gwin retired from the ownership and James P. Applegate, Jonathan Peters, Josiah Gwin and Adam H'lmer became the owners.

Generation 5

The Standard, which had come into the combination, was born in 1871 and was ably edited. Mr. Kelso, one of its owners, was an able lawyer, a shrewd politician and a strong fighter for his own and the opinions of his party. All these men have gone to their last rest, and for a number of years the Ledger was the sole property of Miss Ada Peters, who proved to be one of the best newspaper women of the State, and has the esteem of her community. She sold the paper in the fall of 1916 to Evan B. Stotsenberg, who this year (1918) sold to Bruce Ulster, his manager.

The editors of the Ledger at all times played quite an important part in district politics, and its late owner is a well-known figure, not only in district but in State politics as well, having served the unexpired term of the late Attorney-General Milburn and having been a candidate for the office in the late campaign. His father before him, Judge John H. Stotsenberg, was also prominent in Indiana politics and was a most polished and cultivated gentleman. Major Kelso, who was connected with the Ledger, is also succeeded by a son, C. B. Kelso, equally as able as his father and an equally staunch Democrat and successful attorney and business man.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD

Death has again invaded our city and claims as its victim, J. A. Leedy, one of our most prominent citizens and leading business men. He had been in poor health for several months and this last spring he gave up his active life in the store and since had been trying to regain his health. He went to West Baden, Indiana, in the summer hoping that the baths there would benefit him and, in fact, did feel some better after his return home. About a month ago he took a turn for the worse and since that time had been confined to his home, death relieving him of his sufferings as stated above. The cause of his demise being Brights disease and enlargement of the heart. He was a patriotic citizen and was always ready and willing to lend a hand in anything that was for the betterment of his home town. He has been in business here for over twenty years and was a successful merchant. A little over two years ago he erected a handsome business building and was now just ready to do business on a large scale and in a convenient manner. He will be greatly missed from our community and the entire citizenship extends sympathy to the bereaved wife and relatives.

OBITUARY.

After the death of his father his mother removed with her family to Somers township, Champaign county, Illinois. The mother afterward married B. F. Argo and the family resided on his farm, now known as the Bowers farm, for many years. When Albert was about twenty years of age he came to St. Joseph and lived the rest of his life in this village.

December 17, 1882, he was married to Melvina Peters, who survives. Mr. Leedy was the youngest of a family of nine children all of whom have preceded him to the spirit land. For more than forty years he was a resident of St. Joseph and for more than twenty years a successful merchant. He believed in his town

LEEDY, WILLIAM BIBB, real estate and insurance man, was born December 25, 1846, at Aberdeen, Monroe County, Miss.; son of Lorenzo Dow and Sarah Ann (Bibbs) Leedy, who were married and lived in Huntsville, the former a native of Abingdon, Va., born February 22, 1816, who lived at that place until he was eighteen years of age, when he moved to Alabama and located at Huntsville, the latter a native of Madison County, born in 1818; grandson of James Leedy, a teacher and farmer, who lived at or near Abingdon, Va., and of William and Sarah (Garrett) Bibb, of Huntsville, the former a Virginian, born in 1783, in Goochland County, who died and was buried in Huntsville, 1883, the latter also a native of Virginia, born in 1785, in Amherst County, who died and was buried in Huntsville, 1839; great-grandson of James and Elizabeth (Bibb) Bibb, cousins, and William and Ann (George) Garrett, the former a native of Amherst County, Va., who moved to Nashville, and fought in the Revolutionary War, first enlisting as a private, then entering the artillery service.

Generation 5

Mr. Leedy was reared and educated at Aberdeen, Miss., until, on account of the death of his mother in 1851, and of his father in 1862, he went to live with his mother's people at Huntsville. At that time Huntsville was occupied by Federal troops, and Mr. Leedy, with several of his boy friends and schoolmates accepted a position as clerk under a quartermaster in the U. S. army, on condition that he should not be required to take the oath of allegiance. When the troops were withdrawn previous to Hood's advance in Tennessee, in November, 1864, Mr. Leedy took part in the immediate organization of a cavalry company for the C. S. Army. His company was mustered in as Co. I, Fourth Alabama cavalry, Russell's regiment, Forrest's command, and he became second sergeant of the company. In the first fight in which he took part, on Hood's retreat to the Tennessee River, he and a number of his comrades were captured and imprisoned at Nashville. When the fact that he had held a clerical position under the Federal quartermaster at Huntsville was discovered, he and eighteen others, similarly situated, were charged as spies and tried before a "drum head" court martial. They were offered the choice of taking the oath of allegiance and going north until after the surrender, or of being convicted and sentenced to death. Before the sentence could be carried into effect, Gen. Forrest sent an officer to Nashville under the flag of truce with the warning that he should hang a Federal officer for every one of the nineteen that were executed. Proceedings were stayed until the matter was brought before President Lincoln, who gave orders which resulted in the exchange of the nineteen for Federal prisoners in Libby prison. Sergt. Leedy obtained his freedom at Richmond, March, 1865, and was on a sixty day furlough at the time of Lee's surrender. He gave himself up at Meridian, Miss.; was paroled, and given transportation to Huntsville.

He became a pharmacist at Memphis, Tenn., 1866-1870, attending a college of pharmacy at Philadelphia, Pa., 1868-1869. He entered the banking business at Huntsville in 1870; became a partner of W. R. Risen and company, bankers, 1876-1887; moved to Birmingham in 1887, and became a dealer in real estate and insurance. He is a member of W. J. Hardee camp, United Confederate Veterans; and has been a colonel on the staff of Gen. George P. Harrison, and of George B. Gordon. S. D. Lee, Clement Evans Gordon, and Bennett H. Young. He is a Democrat; a Presbyterian; and an Elk.

Married: September 18, 1873, at Memphis, Tenn., to Kate Stratton, who died June 9, 1914; daughter of John Thomas and Emma (Ferguson) Stratton, of Memphis, natives, respectively, of Franklin, Ky., and Brownsville, Tenn.; granddaughter of Henry and Margaret (Rayburn) Stratton, Virginians, who moved from their native state to Franklin, Ky., then to Holly Springs, Miss., and finally to Memphis, Tenn., and of James Butler and Eliza (Gibbs) Ferguson, natives, respectively, of Belfast, Ireland, and Wilmington, N. C. Children: 1. John Stratton, unmarried; 2. William Bibb, jr., m. Mabel Roy, Birmingham, child, Katherine Leedy; 3. Emma Stratton, m. I. F. Young, Birmingham, child, Kate Leedy. Residence: Birmingham.

After the war began, William B. Leedy (born 1846) returned to Madison County AL to live with his mother's family. According to Federal records, he was employed by the Quartermaster Department at Huntsville AL during the Federal occupation of that city. When Huntsville returned to Confederate control during Hood's Tennessee Campaign, Leedy joined a cavalry company organized by Thomas B. Jordan as 3rd Co. "I", Roddey's 4th Alabama Cavalry, known as the "Jordan Light Guards." Sgt. Leedy was captured at Indian Creek AL, Dec. 23, 1864, along with about fifty other Confederates from Roddey's command. Prisoner-of-war records list him as a Federal deserter, tried in Nashville TN, Feb. 14, 1865. He was released on

John Leedy was born in May 1848 in Washington County, Virginia. John's family left Virginia in the early-mid 1850s. In 1870 they were enumerated in Springfield, Greene County, Missouri where John's father was working as a builder. John at 21 was working as a clerk in a store. His 5 younger siblings were also present. He married Frances A. Mitchell. She had 2 previous marriages, one of which was to ___ Clark with whom she had at least 2 children. A few years after their marriage John and Frances were enumerated farming in the Brookline township area of Greene County. Besides John (33) and Francis (43) the household included 2 children from Francis's earlier marriage and the 2 children born to the couple in the late 1870s: son Francis and daughter Ella May. From 1900 on John and Francis lived in Springfield. John appears to have returned to a line of work he no doubt learned from his father. In 1900 he was enumerated as a furniture dealer, in 1910 he was employed as a carpenter and in 1920 as a cabinetman at a planing mill. By 1920 the couple's 40 year old son Francis was divorced and had returned to his parent's home. He was employed in a car factory [this may have been a train car factory as there were many neighbors working in capacities associated with the railroad]. In 1900 Francis [wife] was reported as the mother of 9 children, 6 of whom were living. However the 1910 census stated that she was the mother of 2 children, both of whom were living [probably just her 2 children with John]. The family does not appear to have remained in one location in the city. In 1910 they were enumerated on Grant St. while in 1920 they were at 2205 Johnson Street. Francis died in 1922 at the age of 85. Her address at the time was listed at 1916 Franklin St. in Springfield. He married second Malissa E. (?). At age 77 John and his second wife "Mallissa" (64) were enumerated together in Springfield. John was still employed and listed his occupation as a contractor. John died of chronic cardiovascular disease on 9 Sep 1936 in Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, at age 88. He was buried on 11 Sep 1936 at Hazelwood Cemetery in Springfield.

Wife of William T. Curtis. She was born in Abingdon MO. the daughter of AG Ludy and Virginia A. Maiden, both born in VA.

Cause of death was intestinal obstruction. She was interred on Nov. 12, 1912.

An e mail sent to me. I corrected the maiden name from Ludy that I had thought was in the death cert. to Leedy, what I was given here.

Father: Abraham Graham Leedy
Mother: Mary Ann Maiden

Place of birth: Abingdon, Washington Co., Virginia (Not Missouri)
Also changed her place of birth as MO. given. To this VA.

This woman has apparently married more than once. Perhaps twice. Frank Bynum Sr. on the lot with her and husband William. Researching the possible relationship I found them in the same household together and Frank was listed as a stepson. There was a daughter named Anna Bynum and an older sibling also listed as a stepson age 20, Archie Atkinson. A son named William P age 20, Lewis Curtis age 19, so he would have been from a first or second marriage for him. It is possible that Archie was a son of a second wife and William was raising him for some reason. It does not mean he had to be the son of Virginia. I just do not know, a bit of brainstorming.

This is a curbed lot and there is a step surname stone the photographer did not take.

of Many of the Representative Citizens

JOSEPH W. LEEDY. His life-long residence in Greene county, his upright life and mature judgment, and the many services he rendered made the name of the late Joseph W. Leedy, for thirty years a leading merchant of Springfield, a synonym for character and worth. One could not contemplate the life record of such a man without gaining therefrom many helpful hints and forming at the same time a very high opinion of the individual, for his affable nature, charitable impulses and benevolent work, extending over a period of years, resulted in incalculable good and stamped him as a whole-souled man and would alone excite the admiration of all, especially of the contemplative turn of mind, for his services to his fellow men came not from a desire to win the plaudits of the world or from any ulterior motive, but merely out of an altruistic nature and a spirit of profound human sympathy. It is scarcely necessary to say that in the inviolable precincts of an ideal home life the true nobility of Mr. Leedy found perfect apotheosis, but there is no desire in this connection to lift the sacred veil of the fireside circle. When he was summoned to close his eyes on earthly scenes when in the zenith of his material success and usefulness to society, all felt that a good man had been called away who could not well be spared. Mr. Leedy was born on a farm near Springfield, Missouri, March 6, 1857. He was a son of A. G. and Mary (Maiden) Leedy, both natives of Virginia, of excellent southern blood. They spent their early lives in the Old Dominion and removed to Greene county, Missouri in early pioneer times and here became widely and favorably known for many years ranking among the leading agriculturists of the county. These parents lived to advanced ages, the mother having survived her son, Joseph W., and died at the age of eighty-four. Their family consisted of six children, namely: Joseph W., of this sketch; Annie married H. L. Ennis (deceased), of Chicago, and to them seven children were born; John is a carpenter and builder of Springfield; Mary married John Flannigan of Carthage, Missouri, and they have two children; Ella married George Booth, an attorney of Webb City, Missouri, and they have one son, Hunter; Mrs. Virginia Curtis who died in 1912.

Joseph W. Leedy grew to manhood in Springfield, where his family had come when he was seven years of age, and he received a good practical education in the schools of Springfield, which was later greatly supplemented by contact with the business world and by home reading on a general scale. He had a decided natural bent for mercantile pursuits, and this was his vocation in Springfield for a period of thirty years, having started here when but a boy, and eight years of this period he conducted a large dry goods store at 225-227 East Commercial street, on his own account. Here he maintained a large and well stocked store, modern in every respect and managed under a superb system, employing a number of assistants, and many of his hundreds of customers came from remote parts of the county, for they knew they would always receive honest and courteous treatment here. By his indomitable energy, close application and integrity he built up one of the best known and leading dry goods businesses in the county, and a comfortable fortune resulted from his efforts. The business is still carried on along the lines which, he inaugurated, under the name of the Leedy Dry Goods & Company of which Mrs. Essie Leedy, a lady of rare executive ability and foresight is the leading spirit and she is making a pronounced success of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Leedy first met in a store where they were both clerking, and their happy and harmonious domestic life began when their marriage nuptials were celebrated on January 3, 1903. She was known in her maidenhood as Essie Carter, and was born and reared on a farm near Springfield and received a good education in the local schools. She is a daughter of Hazen Blanchard and Elizabeth (Banfield) Carter, the former now deceased, but the mother survives; she lives on the old homestead two miles north of Springfield. Mr. Carter was a highly respected farmer, owning a farm two miles from Springfield. His family consisted of seven children, four sons and three daughters, namely: Sterling, Sherman, Blanchard, Emmett, Janie, Essie and Etta.

The union of Mr. and Mrs. Leedy was blessed by the birth of one child, Langdon Lee Leedy, whose birth occurred May 5, 1910 and he is a bright and promising child. Mrs. Leedy has a beautiful home on North Grant street.

Frank Leedy was born in Indiana in 1842. When he was 17, he came across the plains from St. Louis, driving bull teams with other immigrants. After arriving at Salt Lake, he drove on to Helena, arriving Helena in 1865. He made his home in and around Helena since that time.

In 1887, Mr. Leedy and Mrs. Jeanette Whitehead were married. They lived at 522 Park Avenue until the death of his wife, Jeanette, in 1921.

After his wife died, he lived with his daughters. He was a pioneer mining man, following mining most of the time, and was a familiar figure in Marysville, Park City, and Unionville.

On January 6, 1924, Frank died after a short illness. He had suffered a severe cold the day before Christmas, which developed into acute asthma. He was moved from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leo Rhein, in Wolf Creek, to St. Peter's Hospital. His advanced years and a weakened heart contributed to the cause of death. The funeral was held in Flaherty and Kohler's Chapel. Mr. Leedy was survived by three daughters and one stepdaughter, Mrs. T. A. Whalen, Bozeman, Mrs. Leo Rhein, Wolf Creek, Mrs. J. W. Manning, Seattle, and Mrs. H. F. McCann, Great Falls. (Helena Independent, 1/7/1924)

Death: Jan. 12, 1924

Virginia, USA

Member of the Virginia House of Delegates, Virginia State Senator, Virginia National Guard officer, and attorney, Robert F. Leedy received a basic education in the common schools of his county of birth, and after leaving home at the age of 22, spent the next three years mining and railroading. He returned to the family farm when he was about 25 and on March 27, 1890, married Emma Cathrine Keister. Shortly after marrying, the couple relocated to Basic City, Virginia where he engaged in a variety activities there, including real estate and mercantile pursuits. He also began to read law under D.S. Henkle, and in the offices of Floyd Wise Weaver and John B. Minor. Eventually entering the summer law school at the University of Virginia, he was admitted to the bar in Augusta County in September 1893. In the midst of his legal education, he was elected mayor of Basic City. Reelected in 1894, he resigned a year later and moved to Luray. A junior partner in the law firm of Weaver (Floyd Wise Weaver) and Leedy, he left the firm in 1899 to practice alone. In 1908, he partnered with Richard F. Berry and T.L. Benson to create the firm of Leedy and Berry. During his legal career, he was known for work on several cases pertaining to railroad damage suits. In 1914, he was elected as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates.

Representing Page and Rappahannock counties, he held his seat for two terms. Though a successful lawyer, Leedy was also regularly involved in military matters, serving with the Virginia Volunteers (National Guard) for many years. In September 1902, he was made captain of the "Page Rifles," which was an unassigned militia company in Luray until mustered in as Company C of the 2nd Virginia Regiment. He quickly rose in the regiment, being promoted to lieutenant colonel in June 1905 and full colonel by August of the same year. In June 1916, the 2nd Regiment was one of a number called up from the National Guard in a support role in support of the Pancho Villa Expedition. He continued to command the regiment during its nine month stay near the Mexican border, at Brownsville, Texas. Not long after the regiment returned to Virginia, it was called-up again for service when the United States committed to participation in the First World War. When the regiment was sent to Camp McClellan, Alabama in preparation for shipment overseas as part of the American Expeditionary Force, it was combined with the 1st and 4th Virginia as the 116th Regiment, subsequently becoming part of the 29th Infantry Division. Though he planned to continue to command the regiment after the consolidation, Leedy failed rigorous physical tests and was relieved of command. He returned to Luray in March 1918 and was elected the following fall as an unopposed Democrat to the Senate of Virginia, representing Page, Warren, and Clarke counties. During this time, he continued to be a strong advocate for the National Guard and he collaborated with James Hay in the development of the Hay Army Bill, giving new status to the National Guard. Leedy was also known, during his time in the Senate of Virginia in 1920, for his strong opposition to prohibition and Women's Suffrage. In that same year, he unsuccessfully made a bid for the U.S. House of Representatives, running against Thomas W. Harrison of Winchester for Virginia's 7th Congressional District. A major factor in his loss may have been that he ran on an anti-Volstead platform in a dry district. Two years later, despite efforts of his supporters to get him to run again, Leedy opted to support Harrison. Leedy became very ill in December 1923 and, by January, had developed a case of double pneumonia, resulting in his death. He was active in many organizations including the Freemasons and the American Legion.

Robert F. Leedy. The founder of this branch of the Leedy family was Baron Leedy, a German of noble family, who was known in the Shenandoah Valley as the "Dutch Lord." He founded an important family; one of his descendants, Lieutenant Colonel Leedy, was a member of Washington's staff, and they have ever been men of high standing in the professions, business and agriculture. Colonel Robert F. Leedy, of Luray, Page county, Virginia, is a great-grandson of Samuel Leedy, grandson of Daniel Leedy, and son of John Leedy, of Rockingham county, Virginia. Colonel Leedy has among his treasures the great Dutch clock, brought from Germany by the founder, which for generations stood in the old homestead and ticked the passing hours.

Daniel Leedy was a farmer of Rockingham county, Virginia: married Eve Brower, and had issue. Among his sons was John Leedy, born in Rockingham county, Virginia, in 1826. died 1889. He was a sergeant in a Rockingham county militia company and served with them until Company C of the Tenth Regiment was organized, when he enlisted in that company, and when war broke out between the states he served one year. He was then detailed by the Confederate government to conduct farming operations for the benefit of the army, serving in that manner until the war closed. He was a member of the local school board, and

From Richland County, OH History;

JOHN L. GARBER.

There is particular interest in reverting to the life history of the honored and venerable gentleman whose name initiates this review, for his mind bears the impress of the historical annals of the state of Ohio from the early pioneer days to the present time. For a long period he was identified with the agricultural interests of this section of the state but now at the age of eighty-two years he is living retired, having in former years accumulated a competency that now supplies him with all the comforts of life.

John L. Garber was born near his present home, December 11, 1826, a son of Samuel and Catherine (Leedy) Garber, the former born in York county, Pennsylvania, May 8, 1804. His father entered the war of 1812 as a civilian employee and was never heard from afterward. The mother then removed to Bedford county, Pennsylvania, where the son Samuel was placed in charge of a relative, who mistreated him and he returned to his mother, who in the meantime had married Samuel Brawler. Samuel Garber remained in his native state until 1821, when he made his way to Richland county and for a time worked at the shoemaker's trade, after which he was employed by John Leedy, a farmer. It was there that he formed the acquaintance of the daughter, Catherine Leedy, whom he afterward made his wife. He then began farming on his own account and spent his remaining days in Richland county. His family numbered twelve children, of whom our subject is the eldest.

John L. Garber was reared on his father's farm, assisting in clearing the wild land and developing the fields into a cultivable tract. During those early days the family had to endure many hardships, the methods of farming being quite unlike those of the present day, and the family had to go to Sandusky to do their trading. Mr. Garber remained under the parental roof until he attained his majority, at which time he went to Cedar county, Iowa, to join an uncle, who was a millwright by trade. He worked as a millwright in that state for three years, when he once more returned to Richland county and engaged in repairing mills along the Clear fork. He also assisted in building a steam mill in Wyandot county, Ohio. About that time his father erected a brick house, the first in this section of the state, and Mr. Garber roofed the dwelling. This induced some of the neighbors to solicit his services in the erection of houses and in all he helped to build sixteen dwellings. He then engaged in farming, having purchased sixty acres in "Worthington township, which he farmed for one year. Disposing of that property, he then bought one hundred and sixty acres in partnership with a brother but this was later divided, our subject taking eighty acres on section 33, Jefferson township. To this he later added from time to time as his financial resources increased until he possessed three hundred and twenty acres. For a long period he continued to carry on agricultural pursuits on an extensive scale and accumulated quite a comfortable fortune. About a year ago he divided his land among his children and since that time has lived in well earned ease.

DAVID LEEDY GARBER

Generation 5

When Richland county was a frontier district the Garber family was established in this section of Ohio and in both paternal and maternal lines David L Garber was a representative of early families of this section who established their homes here on the frontier.

While there, Mr. Garber contracted a cold which resulted in other complications and he gradually grew worse until he passed away. Mr. Garber was elected county commissioner twice, the first time without opposition and served as such from Jan. 1890 to Sept. 1896. He served some time as a member of the Jefferson Township School Board and of the Board of Trustees. He was prominent in Jefferson Grange and did much to further the interest of the farming class. Mr. Garber's work in the Farmers' Institute at Butler and Bellville, in past years is especially worthy of mention. He acted in the capacity of president of both institutes for a number of years, and was a model presiding officer. His papers on farm affairs, were always well prepared and given, and the vacancy in the institutes can not be filled. In 1902 Gov. Nash appointed him a delegate to the Farmers' International Congress at Colorado Springs, Col., and again in 1902 he was chosen delegate to the same convention, which he was unable to attend on account of ill health. In his death, the community loses a model neighbor, the family an affectionate parent and the people at large a champion for the cause of the down-trodden. -- [Bellville Messenger: 12 February 1903, Vol. 11, No. 6]

Mrs. Rebecca Garber, residing on section 13, Jefferson township, on a fine farm near Bellville, was born in Pennsylvania. March 20, 1837, but was brought to Richland county by her parents in 1841, when about four years of age. She was one of a family of seven children, but only two are now living, her brother, George Wallace, being a resident of Knox county, Ohio. Her father, George Wallace, who was born February 6, 1805, in the Keystone state, died July 18, 1879, and her mother was born March 12, 1808, in Pennsylvania, and died September 12, 1878.

Their daughter Rebecca spent her girlhood days under the parental roof, where she was carefully trained in the work of the household, so that she was well qualified to take charge of a home of her own when on the 19th of June, 1856, she gave her hand in marriage to Jehu Garber. Her husband was born in Jefferson township, this county, October 29, 1835, representing one of the old pioneer families. His father was Samuel Garber, who came to Richland county, Ohio, at a very early epoch in its development. In early life Jehu Garber engaged in teaching school, but in later years devoted his time and energies to farming with excellent results. He was the first secretary of the Grange in this county and was always interested in everything that pertained to the agricultural development of the community. In his own farming operations he displayed a spirit of enterprise and progress and brought his land under a high state of cultivation. In 1864 he took up his abode upon a farm on section 14, Jefferson township, and there year after year he tilled the soil and carried on the work of the fields, his labors making him one of the prosperous agriculturists of the community, and the beautiful brick house, one of the finest houses in Jefferson township, and the home of the Garber family, was built by Mr. Garber.

Into Mr. and Mrs. Garber were born ten children: Eleanora, the wife of John Watson, of this county; Irene, deceased; Clara A., the widow of Oyster, residing in Jefferson township; Ida May, who is at home with her mother; Horatio (now also on the home farm); James William, of Jefferson county; John M., who lives in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; and Wallace, Mertu E. and Mamie D., all of whom have passed away. The death of the husband and father occurred February 6, 1903, and was the occasion of deep and widespread regret, for he had won the respect and sincere regard of many with whom he came in contact. He was also a prominent and influential citizen of the community and served as county commissioner for seven years, discharging the duties of the office in a prompt and able manner, his fidelity being indicated by his long continuance in the position. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and was well known for his good traits of heart and mind. He lived to the age of almost sixty-eight years and his entire life was passed in this county. Mrs. Garber still survives her husband and is well known in Bellville and this locality. She is a member of the Universalist church, and both in the church and outside of it she has gained many warm and sincere friends.
